IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ BEFORE SENDING IN YOUR APPLICATION

Some of these rules may be stricter than those that you apply in your own personal life, or even those of other Florida College camps, but we hope that you can adapt yourself to them for the comfort of others. We are not saying that these are God's rules, but simply some standards which will help all of us to be comfortable and to avoid misunderstandings.

If you feel that you cannot adapt to these rules or if they will make you unhappy and complain, please do not send us this application and please don't come to camp. If after making your deposit or payment, you decide that you cannot be happy with these regulations, please let us know and we will happily refund your deposit or your money. Please don't embarrass yourself and us by coming to camp and trying to test us regarding these rules. Here are some which will be enforced:

* No Ipods radios, stereos, walkmans, CD players or personal entertainment electronics among campers.

\ No cell phone use except at approved times (after evening devotionals) or with permission from staff*

\ No profanity, crude joking, smoking, fireworks or other disruptive behavior or items.*

* Please, no tight pants, low cut tops, shorts, short blouses that reveal the midriff during athletics, etc. If there is any doubt that a certain article of clothing might or might not be acceptable, don't bring it.

* No gang type clothing (esp. super baggy pants), earrings for men,

* Pants and cutoffs for men and women must be below the knee when sitting down.

\ Please obey counselors and staff at all times. If you cannot, you will be asked to leave camp.*

If you feel you can be happy with rules like these, even though they may not reflect your personal judgment, see you at camp!
